Business news

Ribbon cutting ceremony in Mishicot

Ribbon cutting ceremonies were recently conducted at Mishicot's newest business, the Mishicot Super Wash, 224 State St., Country Trunk B.

Earl and Donna Benzinger, owners and operators of the car wash, were joined for the ribbon cutting by Dave Wegner of First Interstate Bank, which provided financing; Mike Judge from Super Wash, Brian Benzinger from Brian Benzinger Builders, Roger Kadow of Kadow Plumbing, Terry Eells of Eells Electric, Roger Holschbach of Holschbach Excavating, Marty Owens of the Manitowoc-Two Rivers Area Chamber of Commerce, Otto Schultz, Chris Baugniet, Richard Heyroth, Lyle Anderson, Tom Tomaszewski of Mishicot's Magic, George Krause, village president, and Lew Stevens.

The car wash offers one touchless, fully automatic bay and two self-service bays. Options available through the self-service bay include super soap as a pre-soak concentrated cleaner, high pressure soap and rinse and spot-free low pressure rinse to be used following the high pressure rinse or wax.

Options available in the automatic bay include pre-soak with super soap wash, rinse, wax, spot-free rinse.

Major contractors for the car wash included Brian Benzinger Builders, Eells Electric, Kadow Plumbing, Holschbach Excavating, Fred Fels Construction, Bob Becker Masonary, F. Radandt and Sons, Anderle Building Center and North East Asphalt Co.